

AN EVENING WITH ALEKSANDER SKOTNICKI, MD
 Professor of Hematology, Jagiellonian University, Kraków, Poland

“BUILDING BRIDGES: POLISH-JEWISH PERSPECTIVES”

Dr. Aleksander Skotnicki is a physician scientist, author and head of the Department of Hematology at Jagiellonian University in Kraków. He has spent a significant part of his life bridging the understanding between people of different nations, religions, occupations, generations and beliefs. Dr. Skotnicki’s lecture will feature images of the Jewish community of Kraków, the tragic fate of its people during the German occupation and the roads of hope and rescue by Polish neighbors. He will also highlight excerpts from his latest book, “Oskar Schindler in the Eyes of Cracovian Jews Rescued by Him.”
